

Entrance controls

General information

Babies / Kids

Each individual visitor possess a valid ticket in order to pass through the entrance turnstiles at the Allianz Arena. For health and safety reasons, it is prohibited for children to attend a match without their own separate seat. The licensed maximum stadium capacity cannot be exceeded. Individuals who are not in possession of a valid ticket would be excluded from the relevant insurance policies.

Concessionary ticket / normal ticket

Exchanges are possible by paying the difference to one of the stewards just beyond security on match day. Cash payments only!
